

Greetings:

The Leather Institute For Education Detroit (LIFE Detroit) would like to invite you to participate in our annual DARK Weekend (Detroit Area Rough Kinkfest Weekend). This will take place Friday, February 4 through Sunday, February 6. We are looking for clubs and organizations that would like to attend the weekend and display their group's information, and we would like you to be part of this event.

Clubs and Organizations

Clubs and Organizations spaces are free and consist of a shared space for displaying information or literature (some wall space will also be available.) Spaces will be on a first come-first serve basis. The deadline to reserve a table is Wednesday, January 26, 2005. The space will be set up along side the "Speaker's Table" area. There will be space for your club or organization in front of the tables for attendees to meet, talk with, and answer questions they may have about you and your organization. The entrance fee for the weekend would be waived for only one member of the club or organization in attendance. Provided that person wears your club's or organization's 'colors.' Please let us know whom you will be designating as your clubs or organization's representative when you reserve the space.

Separately, all clubs and organizations will be included in the DARK Weekend program, which all persons attending the weekend will receive.

Pricing for the DARK Weekend will be $20 for a weekend package, which will allow you access to all events on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Single event pricing is as follows:

Friday, February 4, Meet and Greet-$3 with a portion of the monies collected going to the Leather Archives & Museum.

Saturday, February 5, Afternoon Vendors Mart and Speakers-$2 donation with monies collected going to the Leather Archives and Museum.
